MEETING OF ORDER OF EASTERN STAR

Annual State Convention Meets in the New Westminster Building.

LARGE ATTENDANCE.

Grand Master of Masons Andrews and Grand Senior Deacon Field Deliver Addresses.

About one hundred delegates, representing thirty chapters of the Order of the Eastern Star, from different sections of Virginia were in attendance upon the annual state convention when that body opened at 10:30 o'clock this morning in the Westminster Building of the Second Presbyterian Church.

Mrs. Annie S. Reade, worthy matron of Richmond, presided.

Grand Master Andrews, past patron of the grand chapter delivered the opening address, and the response was made by Mrs. Alice Miller of Oklahoma.

Henry K. Field, past worthy patron of Martha Washington Chapter, of this city, delivered the address of welcome which was responded to by Mrs. Evelyn Waidell, of Newport News, grand matron of Virginia.

Mrs. M. Miller, of Oklahoma, Most Worthy Grand Matron of the Worthy Grand Chapter of the United States; Mrs. Sallie Boettcher, Grand Matron, of North Carfolina; Miss Wilkins, past grand matron of the District of Columbia, and all Past Grand Matrons of Virginia and the District of Columbia, were formally received by the Grand Chapter.

A pleasant feature of the morning session was the memorial service, during which Miss Lucy Graves, of this city, and Mrs. Meradith, of Richmond, sang solos.

An adjournment was taken at 12:30 until this afternoon. Officers will be elected tomorrow.

A reception was tendered Mrs. Miller and the visiting delegates last night in the Westminister Building by Martha Washington Chapter of this city. During the evening an interesting musical and literary program was rendered. Solos by Mrs. DeDier and Miss Lucy Graves and an instrumental duet by Mrs. T. A. Fisher and Mrs. Jas. W.Bales were greatly enjoyed.

WANT FLY MEASURER.

The health office reports that a small boy is wanted at that place in the city hall to work mornings from 9 o'clock to noon, measuring flies. Just at present his duties will be light, as the fly campaign is not yet in full swing. The cardboard boxes for holding flies may be secured free at the following grocery stores: McFarland's M. Downey's Wm. Priest's Wm. H. Peck, and at the health office. Merchants desiring a supply of the boxes can secure them at the health office.

ELKS HAVE MERRY TIME.

Athletic Stunts Are Features of Last Night's Social Session.

Two lively sparring exhibitions between Washington light weights, a hotly contested battle royal between four "black hopes," several good vocal solos, and plenty of refreshments, helped to entertain a large number of Alexandria Elks and their friends at a social session last night in the Elks' Home on Prince street. It was the first social session given under the administration of Exalted Ruler Bales and was a pronounced success. J. Fred Birrell was the chairman and he was assisted by Courtney Acton, Ervin Schwarzman and Jacob Brill. Mr. Phillips, of Washington, was the announcer, Mr. Mueller, the time keeper, and P. F. O'Connor, referee. The first bout was between the "Country Kid" and "Soldier" Fergusson and the second between Eddie Winters and Bill Lang. George H. Evans, Forrest Birrell and W. E. Taylor, the latter of Washington, sang solos.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

William A. B. Dingwall, an American citizen, the owner of a foundry and a director of the Santa Maria de la Paz Mining Company, was killed by the rebels Tuesday at Matehuala, State of San Louis Potosi, Mexico, according to reports which have reached Mexico. Dingwall, who is said to have been one of the wealthiest residents of the district, was killed owing to his refusal to give up money to the rebels.

The fact that Japanese have bought 1,600 acres of land adjoining the smokeless powder plant of the Du Pont Company at Haskell, N. J., near Pompton has been known to officials of the company for some time. It has no significance and is merely a coincidence. The matter was not regarded as being of sufficient importance to form the subject for a discussion at our board meetings. The statement that the Japanese bought this land possibly for the purpose of being able to destroy the Haskell plant in the event of war is absurdity. This announcement was made yesterday by Col. Edward G. Buckner, vice-president of the Du Pont Powder Company, who has direct charge of all sales of the company's explosives to the government.

The Pope yesterday sat in an armchair at his desk in the large library of the state department. This was the first time since his recent illness that the pontiff has been able to leave his apartment for the floor below. During the last week he has gained much in strength, and the removal of the restrictions placed upon him by his physician had cheered him greatly. The Pope sent for Cardinal Merry Del Val, the papal secretary of state, to surprise him, but the Cardinal, although proffering his warm congratulations, urged the utmost caution. The Pope remarked that he could not be more prudent, because, although now quite well, he had postponed the reception of several personages on important affairs for several days more.

Indictments against several members of the "millionaire ring" alleged to have maintained the Jonquil, in Los Angeles, Cal., as a place where young women were lured into white slavery, are expected today, according to W. J. Ford, assistant district attorney. Mr. Ford said yesterday he had prepared several indictments for the grand jury, but refused to say how many had been drawn. Mrs. Elizabeth B. Espey, charged with having contributed to the delinquency of Mrs. Irene Brown, aged 17, one of the girls said to have frequented the Jonquil, was held for trial yesterday by the juvenile court.

Following a comparatively quiet day in the strike situation at Asheville, N. C., a mob of 300 or 400 men and boys, chiefly, the latter, last night attacked the barns of the Asheville Power and Light Company, whose motormen and conductors went on a strike for an advance in wages of 3 cents an hour last Saturday afternoon. Several windows were broken by the volleys of bricks and stones. The police charged the crowd on several occasions, making twelve arrests of men alleged to have been the ringleaders. Extra policemen and deputies were hurried to the scene, and at midnight the crowd had practically dispersed.

Alexander Sebastain, who was arrested Monday, on the charge of shooting his wife twice in the breast, committed suicide yesterday in the county jail at Ithica, N. Y. The woman is recovering in the City Hospital. Sebastain was found by the turnkey hanging from the top bar of his cell. He had wrenched a bed chain from the cell fittings, made a noose about his neck and jumped off the bench bed.

Twenty-three men were trapped in a fire at Kansas City, Mo., yesterday afternoon that destroyed the Helping Hand annex, a mission lodging house, 403 Wyandotte street. Two are known to be dead, five others are missing, and their bodies are believed to be buried in the debris. Twenty of the men employed about the place at night, were asleep on the third and fourth floor when the fire broke out.

WILL RUSH WEBB BILL THROUGH

Bryan's Trip Declared Success By State and Federal Officials.

LONE STAR IN SENATE.

All California Democrats Favor Adoption of Anti-Alien Land-Owning Measure.

Sacramento, Cal., May 1.—Unless some unforseen complications arise to delay action, the upper house of the State legislature today will pass on final reading the Webb bill restricting the ownership of land by aliens. Legislators add that it would go through the House in short order and be signed promptly by Governor Johnson.

According to Senate leaders, Senator Wright is the only member of the upper body who is on record as opposing the measure. The Democrats, despite the urgings of Secretary of State Bryan, declare they will support some anti-alien measure and none has yet been found to criticise the Webb bill.

"The bill will be reached today, and will certainly pass," said Senator Boynton, Progressive leader. "I have heard of no opposition."

Said Senator Campbell, Democratic leader: "The Democrats are all for anti-alien land owning legislation, and the Webb bill seems acceptable. I do not, however, consider Secretary Bryan's mission a failure, I consider it, on the contrary, a great success.

"He has shown Japan and the other nations, that the United States will look after the interests of all friendly nations, and he has also made it certain that the words 'ineligible to citizenship,' to which the President objected, will not appear in the bill."

Washingon, May 1.—Although maintaining a policy of strict silence, the White House let it become known today that Mr. Bryan's mission to California it not regarded as a failure, because it has brought the Federal and the State government to an understanding with each other, even though radically different views of the proposed anti-alien land law prevail.

President Wilson probably will send his final instructions to Mr. Bryan before leaving for New Jersey at 3 o'clock this afternoon. Although he will not confer with Acting Secretary of State Moore before going on the trip, it is believed that a definite policy has been outlined.

Japan will make no further diplomatic representations to this government regarding its attitude on the California anti-alien land laws until the measure formally has been made a statute. This information was given today by a Japanese who is in position to know.

Japan's attitude tody is as it has been throughout the negotiations on the California legislation, is a most conciliatory one, and at no time have any diplomatic utterances been made to the State Department that might be construed as an "ultimatum." The Japanese government and the embassy in Washington deeply regret the published accounts of the "jingo war talk" meetings that are being held in Japan, and more deeply regret the recent speech of Congressman Sisson, of Mississippi on the floor of the House, in which he advocated war rather than any submission to what he said was Japan's 'arrogant claims.'

DEATH OF MRS. GAILLARD.

Former Resident Dies This Morning in Winnsboro, S. C.

The many friends of Mrs. R. W. Gaillard, in this city and vicinity, will regret to learn of her death in Winnsboro, S. C., at an early hour this morning. It will be remembered that Mrs. Gaillard, when a resident of this city, about four years ago, suffered a painful accident, a sa result of a fall, from which she never recovered. In addition, two years ago, she was stricken with paralysis and as a result her death took place.

Mrs. Gaillard, was a widow of R. W. Gaillard, who was so well-known in this city and in Fairfax county. The family moved to Ashland, Fairfax county, six miles from Alexandria, shortly after the civil war, and came to Alexandria about ten years ago where they made their residence on south St. Asaph street between Duke and Wolfe streets. After the death of Mr. Gaillard and Mrs. Gaillard's mother in this city, the latter removed to her former home in Winnsboro.

Mrs. Gaillard was a daughter of the late W. W. Boyce who was a member of the United tSates Congress before the civil war and was afterwards a member of the Confederate States Congress. She was a lady of high Christan character and devoted much time to Olivet Chapel, in Fairfax county, during her residence there. Her funeral will take place in Winnsboro on Saturday.

These kitchen cabinets are proving a factor in modernizing the kitchens of Alexandrians, and the club plan, under which the Griffin Furniture Company is selling the cabinets, is proving very popular. Three ladies joined the Hoosier Club the first morning the sale started.

This is a most worthy project, in view of the fact that the organization stands for the social, civic and moral uplift of the boys of our city.

WEST FIRES IN RICHMOND.

Once Started, Raged With Tremendous Fury.

Richmond, Va., May 1.—Destructive fires raged in various parts of the city last week. There had been little or no consequence for some time, the flames, once started, raged with tremendous fury. Just before fire got in the timber on Church Hill, and in spite of all efforts to fight it, heavy losses were sustained. Those who were damaged were A. C. Judy, G. J. Hiner and C. H. Stephenson.

On the previous day Willis Gibson lost a lot of fence along a line on his farm near Vanderpool, and other damage was done at points along Jacks river. In two instances the fire originated from a passing traction engine, the dry woodland being easily ignited.

HOUSE STILL ON TARIFF GRIND

Considers Wood Schedule Before Taking up Sugar Bill.

END SATURDAY NIGHT.

Flow of Oratory Under the Five-Minute Rule More Spirited Than in the General Debate.

Washington, May 1.—Resuming its tariff grind, the House today put behind it the troublesome steel schedule and moved on toward another stumbling block—sugar. Sandwiched between the steel and sugar schedules was "wood and manufactures of," but the fight on free lumber did not compare in intensity with that waged by Louisiana and Colorado members in a hopeless attempt to prevent the reductions on sugar.

Congressman Underwood hopes to finish the tariff bill Saturday night, but it became evident today that a soft pedal must be put on the debate if this is to be done. The flow of oratory under the five minute rule is even more heated than that which occurred under the license of general debate, and Mr. Underwood must be on the lid constantliy to kep the talk from greatly delaying the passage of the bill.

One of the most stirring nicidents connected with the consideration of the bill was staged at the night session last night, when the House leaders wrangled over what constitutes "selfishness." Congressmen Mann, Underwood and Palmer participated in this discussion, and Mr. Underwood's speech was dramatic.

Congressman Kreider, a Pennsylvania Republican, offered an amendment to reduce the duty on hooks and eyes used in shoe manufacturing. Congressman Palmer, Pennsylvania Democrat, sought to rebuke his Keystone State colleague, calling attention to the fact that Mr. Kriedler was a shoe manufacturer, and alleging that he was endeavoring "to put money in his own pocket."

This aroused Congressman Mann, the minority leader, who said:

"I suppose next that we will be told that gentlemen in this House who own farms or who are interested in agriculture have no right to propose amendments or to vote upon propositions affecting the tariff upon agricultural products; but think of a speech of that sort coming from one of the older members of this House, when the gentleman from Alabama, (Mr. Underwood) who introduced the bill affecting the tariff upon iron and steel products is himself an iron and steel manufacturer!'"

Congressman Underwood expressed his regret that Mr. Mann "has brought me into the question."

The minority leader said he meant no personal reflection on Mr. Underwood, "who has never used his official position to the advantage of his private business." Then the Alabama leader, with dramitic intensity, closed the debate by defining what he considered the duties of a member of Congress to be.

PUSHING WORK ON PANAMA CANAL

In an Emergency Could Pass Battleships Through in October.

44,773 MEN AT WORK.

Ninety-Nine Per Cent. of Total of 4,446,530 Cubic Yards of Concrete Have Been Laid.

Washington, May 1. — Were an emergency to arise necessitating the precence of American battleships in the Pacific ocean, the Panama canal would be utilized as a means of transit from the Atlantic to the western coast by the latter part of October. This admission was made today by officials of the Isthmian Canal Commission, who frankly stated that they were straining every resource to complete the locks and gates of the waterway by that time.

An idea of the haste with which the finishing touches are being put on the canal is given in the current issue of "The Canal Record," the official publication of the Isthmian Commission. It is shown that at present the labor force employed on the construction work is the largest utliied at any time since the American occupation of the Zone.

The total effective working force today is 44,773 men. They are divided into three shifts, working twenty-four hours each day. Until recently only two eight-hour crews were employed.

Colonel George W. Goethals, builder of the canal, in his last report to Secretary of War Garrison, said:

"The opening of the Panama Canal always has been predicted on the questions of slides and the completion of the lock gates. The present schedule contemplates admitting water into Culebra Cut early in October and the completion of one flight of locks at either end of the canal by the same date. The passage of boats then depends upon the condition of the slides. It is hoped that we will be able to pass a ship before the close of the year."

It was learned at the commission today that more than 99 per cent. of the total of 4,446,530 cubic yards of concrete to be placed in the locks have been laid. About 98 per cent. of the concrete for the twin locks at Gatun have been laid, according to the last record of completed work received by the commission.

According to the opinion of the expert engineers of the commission today, the date of the formal opening of the canal is problematical, but ships can be sent through the waterway in case of emergency, probably by the latter part of October.

SERMON BY DR. PRETTYMAN

Chaplain of U. S. Senate Delights Large Audience at Trinity Church Last Night

Last night Dr. F. J. Prettyman preached a powerful sermon on the text, "And he preached unto him Jesus" at the anniversary services in Trinity M. E. Church.

He said, the business of the Methodist Church has been to preach Jesus. That has been faithfully done, especially in the early part of the history of that church. To preach Jesus, is to preach doctrine. Let us not be afraid of doctrine. We ministers are afraid to preach doctrine, because some one may call us, Dr. "Dry As Dust," or say that we are not interesting or entertaining. I don't pretend to be entertaining. I am not competing with the moving picture shows. I would not bring the gospel of the Son of God down to such a level. I will warrant that there are larger crowds in the moving picture places than here tonight, even though you have a respectable audience. So many people are looking for amusement but I am going to preach the word, the word that saves and redeems.

"Preaching Jesus means to preach a life, for Jesus was the true life and light." "I am the life," "I am the resurrection," said the Master. Preaching Jesus means to preach the new life, the new life of righteousness. "I am come that they might have life and that they might have it more abundantly. It means to preach a life of service, a life of obedience.

"To preach Jesus means to preach on experience. "I am a Methodist," said Dr. Prettyman," and I believe in the fact that there must be a religious experience, "to know in whom we believe," was the key note of the fathers and they could tell about it and were not afraid to express themselves. Have we not grown afraid to give expression to our feelings in these days. When my grand-father used to preach there were always the "Amens," the halleujahs" and such fervent expressions. We haven't heard much of it tonight. The man who has Jesus, has an experience and should not be afraid to tell about it."

Dr. Prettyman's sermon was received with delight and after the close he was congratulated by the members of the church and friends.

Dr. C. L. Mead, pastor of the First Methodist Chruch of Baltimore, Md., will preach tonight. Dr. Mead is one the strongest preachers of the church.

MEMORIAL DAY SERVICES

Rev. John Lee Allison to Be Orator at Confederate Monument on May 24th

As has been the custom for many years, R. E. Lee Camp of Confederate Veterans, will observe the 24th inst., it being the anniversary of the departure of the Alexandrians who served in the army of the Seventeenth Virginia regiment and others who served in the Army of Nortern Virginia during the Civil War. On that day the Federal army made a move upon this city bent upon capturing the Confederates quartered here at that time. The Southerners, however, were on the alert, and the pickets which had been thrown out on the outskirts of the city, as well as those stationed at different points on the river front gave the alarm and all except one company managed to elude their would-be captors and proceeded to Manassas Junction, where they remained until after the first battle of Bull Run.

On May 24, 1889, the monument at the intersection of Prince and Washington streets was unveiled, since which time the survivors of the Alexandria companies and other ex-Confederates have celebrated the 24th of May.

The exercises this year will be of the usual interesting and impressive nature. Rev. J. Lee Allison, D. D., pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church, will deliver the oration on the occasion.

Music appropriate for the occasion will be rendered and the usual exercises in Christ Church will be held.

NEWS OF THE OLD DOMINION.

NEGRO KILLS TWO MEN.

Murderer Makes His Escape—Bloodhounds on His Trail.

Two prominent Hampton county, S. C., men were killed and several wounded in a pitched battle yesterday afternoon and last night with Richard H. Austin, a negro, accused of attempting to assault a white woman at Luray. The negro has not been caught. Austin is alleged to have gone to the home of a well-known citizen of Luray and attacked a young woman about 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The woman's cries attracted passers-by, but the negro escaped. Equipped with a shotgun a bag filled with shells, a large revolver, and a belt filled with cartridges, he sought refuge in thick woods. When the pursuers approached the negro in the woods he opened fire. The first round of shots J. Frank Bowers was killed, Dr. S. C. Moore fatally wounded, and George Hanna was shot in the back. The pursuers retreated a short distance, and kept up a scattered fire. Help was summoned from Allandale and Hampton.

About 8 o'clock last night Magistrate F. H. Edenfield, of Allandale, who had joined the posse, attempted to lead a dash to the negro's hiding place. He was shot and killed, and an unidentified man with him was probably fatally wounded.

A cordon was drawn around the thicket where the negro was at bay, and reinforcements were awaited.

Shortly after 9 o'clock the negro made a dash for liberty. At least 50 shots were exchanged, but he escaped.

Bloodhounds are being rushed to the scene from Barnwell, S. C., and from the State penitentary. Governor Blease also has been requested to send troops, but at a late hour no action had been taken by the governor.

CREW RESCUED.

Without Compass, Sloop Aboard Gets Lost And Drifts to Sea.

Norfolk, Va., May 1.—After a night at sea without compass, or any facilities for making a signal of distress, three men were taken off the little Mayflower, off Virginia Beach yesterday morning by life savers.

The Mayflower left Tangier Island for Norfolk Monday night, and the course in Chesapeake Bay being nowhere out of sight of land,, the travelers thought it unnecessary to carry a compass. But ill fortune brought thick weather, which blotted out the view of shore, the result being that the little craft followed the wind and tide out through the Virginia capes to sea.

Tuesday night the men discovered their plight, but also found a strong wind unfavorable to making shore. Yesterday morning the tide brought the vessel in with her rigging broken-up and crew exhausted.

Pennybacker, of Austin, Tex., president; Mrs. Eugene Reilly, of Charlote, N. C., corresponding secretary; Mrs. Wm. B. Williams, of Lapeer, Mich., treasurer, and Mrs. Grace Julian Clarke, of Indiana, director.

After the addresses of welcome and responses, and brief talks by the national officers, the reports of officers and committees were submitted and discussed.

Mrs. E. C. Means entertained the delegates and vistors at tea this afternoon, and later a reception in their honor was given by Mrs. Bernard C. Goodwin.

Last night the delegates attended a musicale at the Baptist Church, and addresses were made by Mrs. Pennybacker, Mrs. Reilly, Mrs. Williams, and Mrs. Clarke.

The election of officers will be held this afternoon.

NEGRO DEATH RATE.

Is More Than Double That of Whites In Petersburg.

Petersburg, Va., May 1.—The report of the Health Department for the month ending April 26, shows a total of 42 deaths in the city, including one non-resident. White, 13; colored, 29.

Though considerably less numerically in population, the rate of mortality among the negroes was more than double that among the whites. Of the decents eight were under 5 years old and one was over 80. Two deaths were certified by the coroner; five bodies were shipped from, and fourteen bodies were brought to the city for burial.

Among the causes assigned for death were tuberculosis, seven; typhoid, two; cancer, three; pneumonia, five. Measles prevails to a considerable extent in the city, but generally in mild form.

WOMAN KILLED BY TRAIN.

Orange, Va., May 1.—In attempting to cross a trestle near Rio ahead of a Southern passenger train yesterday morning, a woman named Mrs. Marr was truck and instantly killed. She was walking with her husband, who jumped off the trestle in time to save himself.

They were on their way to his former home in Delaware. Marr was penniless, having lost all his belongings in Illinois during the recent big flood.

BUYS ALBEMARLE CANAL.

Pays $500,000 for Property And Will Spend $900,000 to Improve it.

Norfolk, May 1.—The transfer of the Chesapeake and Albemarle canal property from private ownership to the United States government, at a cost of $500,000, which took place here yesterday, will open that waterway to the free use of shipping. A saving of $100,000 to North Carolina shippers annually will begin as soon as the government allows boats to go through, and that will be at once. The sale of this canal is the first step in the creation of the inland waterway from Norfolk to Beaufort, and this project will make the first link of the intracoastal waterway from Boston to Florida.

The property purchased by the government is the canal connecting Elizabeth river, on which Norfolk is situated, with North river, which empties into Albemrle Sound. There are two land cuts in the canal, both making a total of fourteen miles through the land. The remainder of the way is traversed on the Elizabeth river, North Landing river, Currituck Sound, North river, and Albemarle Sound, Through Pamlico Sound to Beaufort there is already a waterway with a minimum depth of 10 feet. This part of the route, as well as the newly purchased property, will be deepened to a minimum of 12 feet. The government has available now $900,000 in addition to the half million purchase money, for improvements on Chesapeake and Albermarle canals.

Seeks Missing Bride.

Richmond, Va., May 1.—Where is my wife?

Such is the question which Thomas Grant Walker, of 1031 Floyd avenue, is today asking himself. Married only Friday last to a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H.L. Ratcliffe, of Highland Park, Miss Elizabeth Ratcliffe, the young man is in a quandry as to the whereabouts of his bride.

That she disappeared as completely as if the ground had swallowed her up, there appears to be not the slightest doubt.

It is difficult to obtain particulars, but the fact has been established that Mr. Walker does not know where his wife is and is much concerned.

Killed in Fight.

Suffolk, Va., May 1.—Martin Mayfield and Willie Worrell, both colored employees on the farm of Mrs. Anna Upshur, at Chuckatuck, Monday morning engaged in an altercation as a result of which Mayfield stabbed and instantly killed Worrell.

His biplane smashing into the ground at a terrific speed, Oscar Brindley, a Wright flier, narrowly escaped being dashed to death at College Park, D. C., yesterday afternoon, while making a landing in his machine. The biplane was almost totally demolished. Brindley made a circle of the field, climbing up 1,500 feet. In coming down he volplaned to within a few feet of the ground, and it is believed misjudged his landing distance. The biplane hit with a crash. A number of spectators thinking that Brindley had met with serious injury rushed upon the field, but found that he was uninjured.

A FEW WORDS OF APPRECIATION.

Today marks the close of the second year of the present management of the Alexandria Gazette, and we wish to acknowledge the cordial assistance which has been extended to us by our many friends during the two years that we have been in charge of the paper. There have been many difficulties to overcome and many problems to solve which have been simplified for us by the co-operation of the public of Alexandria and we are deeply grateful.

We know our friends will be glad to know that material prosperity has come as a result of our labors. The past year has been one of the most successful in the history of the paper. Our circulation has increased in a gratifying way and our advertising patronage has reached a point to tax our present facilities.

The Gazette enters another year with the supreme confidence in the people of Alexandria, with malice towards none and a broad charity towards all.

PUBLICITY HELPS TO PREVENT CRIME.

We wish to enter our protest against the illogical and alleged attempts upon the part of certain people to muzzle newspapers and prevent them from publishing accounts of executions of criminals. While we have no desire to re-enact the old English law which provided that murderers and others who forfeit their lives to the community be hanged in chains, we do not believe that where murders and other dastardly acts are committed the people should know something concerning the maner in which retribution was meted out.

Many years ago an execution took place in this city. The condemned was a young colored woman who had deliberatly picked up her white mistress and threw her into a fire in a country house and had held her there until she was fatally burned. Only a few persons, apart from officials, were allowed in the jail yard, and hundreds gathered around the walls anxious to witness the execution.

The next execution was in 1873, when the late Captain James M. Steuart was sheriff. He ordered the gates of the jail to be opened to any one who desired to enter. The attache of the Gazette, who wrote the account of the execution, closed it with these words: "The witnesses of the hanging were numerous and the lesson of the law was taught."

The commissioners of the District of Columbia have made a protest to Congress against the bill introduced by Senator Works, of California, prohibiting newspapers in the District of Columbia from printing news relating to crime. In their report the Commissioners say:

"The publicity given by the press generally tends to lessen evil conditions, and thus renders a useful service to the public That the dread of publicity has been a deterrent influence upon those disposed or tempted to the commission of crime may reasonably be inferred from the fact that most offenders against law earnestly seek to avoid exposure of the circumstances of their misbehaviour in newspaper reports of their trials.

"Hence, although a reasonable surveillance of such publications might be desirable, the Commissioners do not believe that the enactment of the radical legislation contemplated by the bill is advisable."

THE SCUTARI PROBLEM.

Note Sent to Turkey Demanding Peace in Balkans.

London, May 1.—At today's consultation of the ambassadors at the foreign office it was expected that a compromise would be reached in the Scutari problem, the balance of the powers agreeing to uarticipate with Austria-Hungary in the seizure of Antivarti in return for the dual monarchy's agreement not to take any further action tha nthat for two weeks pending negotiations with King Nicholas.

The powers today delivered a joint note to the sublime porte, demanding the immediate cessation of hostilities in the Balkans, the appointment of Ottoman peace delegates and the announcement of Turkey's choice of a city for negotiations.

Diplomats regarded the situation as much more hopeful, and the Countess of Berlin, Paris, and Vienna were more nearly normal than at any time since the Montenegrin affair loomed on the horizon.

Alleged Cause of Downfall.

New York, May 1.—Jack Rose, the baldheaded gambler who figured so prominently in the murder of Herman Rosenthal and the trila of Lieutenant Becker, qualified as an after-dinner speaker, at the dinner of the Twilight Club last night.

Rose said that if juvenile courts had existed when he was a boy his life might have been a different story. He said typhoid fever left him bald when he was four years old, and that the taunts of his school mates led him to play truant so often that he fell into bad company and was sent to a reform school. There he was thrown with older crooks, he said and when he came out he was schooled and hardened to a life in the underworld.

The "reformed" gambler said he had "turned straight" at last, and was enjoying life as a writer nad Connecticut farmer.

BRIDE NEAR AS MAN IS SLAIN.

Tumbling Stack Crushes Life From Recently Wed Well-Digger.

Winchester, Va., May 1.—Roy Jett, 20 years old, a well-digger of Charlestown, W. Va., was instantly killed Tuesday night almost in sight of his bride of three weeks when a steel drill swung against a guy wire attached to a large smokestack at the plant of the Berryville Ice and Cold Storage Company, causing the stack to fall and break his neck. His bride, formerly Miss Ida Hiett, of Charlestown, had been spending the day with him and was visiting at the home of Town Sergeant Feltner when she heard the crash. She collapsed when told her husband was dead.

WOMAN A HUMAN TORCH.

Dies After Being Ablaze From Head to Foot.

Philadelphia, Pa., May 1. — Her night dress igniting from a gas jet yesterday Miss Morella Gray, 52 years old, a trained nurse, in an instant became a veritable human torch, and in an effort to reach help she tripped and plunged from the third to the second story of her home, where she lay until other women roomers came to her aid. She died a few minutes after being admitted to the Polyclinic Hospital.

Miss Gray, whose room is on the third floor, went to the bath room, where her gown touched the gas flame. Although she tried hard to beat out the flames, she was soon enveloped, and her fall down the stairs fanned them into greater fury. Aroused by her screams and the noise of her fall, Mrs. Mary Love and Mrs. Margaret Macon went to her assistance. Filling buckets of water the finally drenched the woman, but not until after she had been horribly burned. Then, bundled in blankets, she was taken to the hospital. Miss Gray formerly lived in Cheswold, Del.

MOUNT VERNON.

Crowning the bank of the river,
Backed by the green wood's shade
Far from the highway's traffic,
Nestling beside the glade,
There go merry thoughts a-wand'ring
There would my spirit fly,
Here, in the flesh I'm lab'ring,
There, in my heart am I.

Clad in the garb of summer,
Gaily the woods appear,
Sweet is the dale's fine perfume,
Fresh in the early year,
Mighty and grand Potomac,
Stop in thy way to the sea,
Tell of its past years' glory,
Tell of its history.

There where the woods and river
Blend in a pretty scene,
There where the grand Mount Vernon
Stands in the summer sheen,
There where its hallowed memories
Hold fast a nation's love,
There's where I'd like to wander,
There 'midsts its green I'd rove.

They ought to send that fellow Johnson back to the minors. He can't do a thing but pitch.

We understand that there's a measuring party coming off tonight, where you pay admission according to you height. Jim Douglas says he can' afford it, but it will be a cheap treat for Leopold Ruben.

A-dillar a-dollar, a ten-o'clock scholar,
What makes you come so late,
The wrath of Colonel Ficklin will Fall on your luckless pate.

If William J. Bryan, Secretary of State, is a candidate for the presidency,, to succeed Wilson, nothing in the world can stop him from being elected according to Senator James E. Martine, of New Jersey, who went to St. Louis as a member of the Congressional delegation from Washington to attend the dedication of the Jefferson memorial. "Bryan will be the logical candidate," he said. "People have come to know and to understand him better. People think that he has become more stable in his views—struck an equilibrium, as it were. The fact is, Mr. Bryan is just as radical today as he was 20 years ago, but the people have grown up to him."

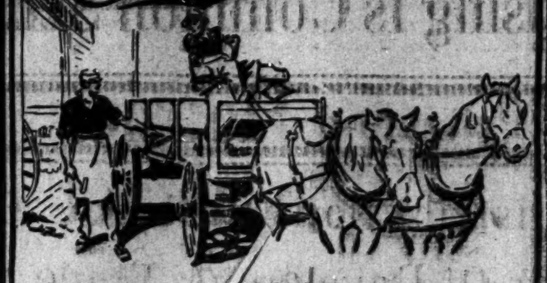
Studebaker



"Yes Sir! Studebaker wagons are made to back up a reputation."

"I know because wagons of every make come into my shop for repairs, and I have a chance to see how few are Studebakers."

That's the opinion of thousands of blacksmiths who know the quality of Studebaker wagons.

The owners never regretted that they bought Studebakers.

Tested materials, accurate workmanship insure a wagon unequaled for durability, and this careful selection of wood, iron, steel, paint and varnish has been a fixed rule with the Studebaker Company for sixty years. That is why a Studebaker wagon runs easiest and lasts longest. It is built on honor.

Whether you live in town or country, there is a Studebaker vehicle to fill your requirements for business or pleasure — and harness of every description made as carefully as are Studebaker vehicles.

PURCHASES TOBACCO HERE.

Testimony Shows Dual Empire Patronizes the Product of Virginia Mostly.

Washington, May 1.—Preliminary testimony as to the amount of American tobacco purchased by the French, Spanish, Italian and Austrian governments, which have a monopoly of the business in their respective countries, was Tuesday given before the special committee to investigate the alleged combine to depress the price of American tobacco, abroad. Senator Martin, of Virginia heads the commission.

Tuesday's witness was R. H. Matthewson, an expert in the department of agriculture. He showed that Austria buys most of her five million pounds annual snupply in Virginia, while France gets practically all of her thirty million to fifty million pounds from Maryland and Kentucky. Spain buys fourteen million pounds each year through a special agent sent here for the purpose. Italy, France and Austria buy through their consuls. Italy's purchase in 1910 was 36,950,000 pounds.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

A sensation was caused in Warsaw, Russian Poland, yesterday by the arrest of Baron John Bisping, one of the wealthiest landlords of Lithuania, on the charge of murdering Prince Ladislas Drucki Lubecki, a relative by marriage, whose body was found with two bullet wounds on April 22 in the park adjoining his residence at Teresin near Warsaw.

Blowing himself to pieces with dynamite was the method adopted by Peter Fluri, wealthy farmer of Ladysmith, Wis., to commit suicide. Placing a stick of the explosive on the ground, Fluri lighted the fuse and lay on the charge. An alleged quarrel with his wife was given as the reason for the act.

John [illegible] of Hastings, Neb., shot and killed his wife and himself in a boarding house at Fairbury, Neb., early yesterday. He was an agent for a harvester company. He was 55 years old. His wife was 32 years old. It is believed that the tragedy had been agreed to by both. They left a seven-months-old baby.

Eight young men were arrested for the hazing they gave Clarence Widenar and his bride, whose marriage was announced recently in Midland, Ia. The marriage had been kept secret for five months and was announced at a dinner party by the mother of the bride. The guests imprisoned Widenar in a coal bin and left him there all night. Mrs. Widenar was ducked in a public trough.

John Seibert, a wealthy farmer of Garret county, Md., living 12 miles from Lonaconing, reported yesterday that he was robbed of between $6,000 and $7,000 on Sunday. The money, mostly in small bills, was in a trunk on the second floor of his home, having been paid to him on a note which he held. He said he was too busy farming and did not have time to deposit the money in bank. On Sunday all the family were away. He did not have occasion to go to the trunk until Tuesday, when he found it broken open and all the money gone but three $1 gold pieces.

Revolutionaries by a daring plan secured the release during the night of a number of prisoners arrested during Sunday's political disturbances in Lisbon and confined on board the Portuguese cruiser Republica, in the harbor. Several boats filled with armed men, dressed as sailors, clambered on board the cruiser at 2 o'clock in the morning and demanded that the prisoners be handed oevr to them. At the same moment three shots were fired from the guns on the cruiser, so that it appeared as though the affair was being carried out with the connivance of the officers and crew. The prisoners were then given up by their guards and landed before the naval authorities in the harbor understood what was going on. They had disappeared before any action could be taken against them.

To The Citiezns of Alexandria and R. F. D.'s

As certain candidates have seriously stated that I am out of the race for Postmaster of the city. I desire to correct the error, and to state that while I do not care to annoy my friends or the public by begging signatures to useless positions, that after 40 years' service to Alexandria and the Democratic party, I am, at least, a receptive candidate for the position, other active candidates to the contrary notwithstanding.

Appeal From Button's Ruling Heard By Corporation.

Richmond, May 1.—After listening to testimony and argument by both sides in the appeal of the Modern Workmen of the World, a fraternal insurance order, from the decision of State Commissioner of Insurance Button excluding the order from Virginia, the State Corporation Commission announced, through Judge R. R. Prentis, that it would take the matter under advisement. The hearing, which was generally expected to occupy several days, was abruptly terminated yesterday afternoon.

Only one witness was placed on the stand—John B. Kinnear, the treasurer of the order, who was called upon to testify by the appellants. He was subjected to a long and rigid examination on the financial condition and the business management of the Modern Workmen of the World. Judge J. K. M. Norton, of Alexandria, and A. H. Sands, of Richmond, represented the fraternal company, while Assistant Attorney-General Davis appeared in behalf of Colonel Button. The commissioner offered no witnesses.

The State Commisaoner of Insurance revoked the license of the Modern Workmen of the World to do business in Virginia about two years ago, when several of the officers were accused of careless handling of funds belonging to the order. Indictments for misappropriation of money are now pending against officers of the order in the District of Columbia courts. Judge Prentis said yesterday, that the Corporation Commisson would like to see the outcome of these indictments before announcing a decision.

Staunton League of Women's Suffrage Puts Itself on Record.

Staunton, Va., May 1.—There was a well-attended meeting of the Staunton League of Women's Suffrage, held at Mrs. Jacob Yost's Tuesday night. Arrangements were made to have Mrs. Desha Breckenridge, of entucky, address the league at an early date.

The following resolution was passed: "Resolved, That this league puts itself on record as being unalterably opposed to the methods adopted by the English Militant Suffragists."

HERO OF ROMANTIC MARRIAGE.

Clergyman's Father is Still Living in Rockbridge County.

Paris, May 1.—Mrs. Emily Hutchinson Crane and Francis T. A. Junkin both of Chicago, were married yesterday at the mayor's office on the eighth arrondissment, and later at the American church, on the Avenue D'Alma, in the presence of a large gathering.

Chicago, May 1.—Both Mrs. Emily Hutchinson Crane and Francis T. A. Junkin are well known in Chicago.

Mrs. Crane was the widow of Richard T. Crane, wealthy philanthropist and ironmaster, who died a year ago. Mr. Junkin is general counsel for the Santa Fe Railroad.

The wedding is the culmination of a romance dating back twenty-five years. At that time Mr. Junkin was a young lawyer in New York. Mrs. Crane, who was then Miss Emily Hutchinson was a belle of Vienese society, her father being connected with the American diplomatic service in the Austria capital. She and Mr. Junkin were sweethearts. They had a difference and the plans for the wedding were dropped.

Later Miss Hutchinson married Richard T. Crane, being his third wife. After his death she and Mr. Junkin renewed their romance, and their engagement became known several months ago.

The bride is 47 years old. Mr. Junkin is a son of Rev. William Finney Junkin, who still lives at the old home place in Rockbridge county, Va.

ASSAULT MAY PROVE FATAL.

Man Attacked in Own Home By Assailants, Who Think he is Police Officer.

Danville, Va., May 1.—E. D. Meggerson, a cotton mill employe of Schoolfield, aged thirty years and married, is lying at the point of death following an assault made by two men, which is nearly as remarkable as it is barbarous.

C. L. Matthews on Monday was arrested by a Schoolfield officer charged with being drunk and disorderly, and while the warrant was being served Matthews assaulted the officer with a chair. Police Justice Fitts fined the man and he promised he would go home and remain sober.

During the small hours of Tuesday morning, Matthews set out to find the officer who had arrested him, with the intention of getting even with him. He persuaded Lee Harris, a fifty-year-old man, to assist him. In the dark, the two men mistook the house of the officer and entered that belonging to Meggerson. The back door was open and they crpet in. Mrs. Meggerson beside her husband in bed, heard the men come in and called, but she failed to awake him, and while she was trying to arouse him the two men, entered the room with drawn knives, and walking up to the bed without speaking, Matthews plunged his knife into the side of the sleeping man. Meggerson leaped up from the bed and jumped through the windows, running to his brother's house nearby, bleeding badly. His wife, seizing her baby, dropped it through the window seven feet from the ground, and followed. In the meantime the shouts aroused the neigbors, and Officer Flannigan, the man whom Matthews sought and who lived next door succeeded in capturing both of the would-be assassins, who are now in the city jail. Meggerson is hovering between life and death, with a deep wound through his lung.

Father and Son Meet.

Harrisonburg, Va., May 1.—Two total strangers, A. F., and W. H. Gruell, registered at the Augusta Hotel, Staunton, several days ago. The clerk called the men's attention to the similarity in names. It turned out that the men were father and son. When the boy was 2 years old he went away with his mother, who separated from the father. That was 22 years ago and the chance meeting was a pathetic one.
